

Secretary GAIL TULLOCH

Gail was born and grew up in Melbourne. She worked at the State (later the Commonwealth) Bank for 23 years, specialising in the property and mortgage areas. Gail came to Shepparton three years ago and joined South Shepparton Community Centre as a volunteer, moving to a position on the Committee and has held the position of Secretary for two years. Gail also still puts in time as a Volunteer, running the Thursday group Healthy Connections and working with our refugee population in Conversational English and training for Australian Citizenship tests.

Gail's volunteer work has included working with St Vincent de Paul, Kensington Community Centre Committee of Management, Community representation and Advisory for Woman's Peace Garden Development and as a Community Representative on the Lynch's Bridge Re-development Group.
