

Treasurer NEIL LUMSDEN

Born in Sydney Neil completed an Associate Diploma in Mechanical Engineering. Becoming qualified with IBM, HP, Compaq and Microsoft enabled a change of career into the IT industry, opening his own business after gaining qualifications in both Small Business Management and Workplace Training. His involvement with volunteer community work began with Rotaract, and he served on the Board of Management of Sydney Synod of the Anglican Diocese. Moving to Rushworth the volunteer service continued with CFA as Secretary/Treasurer for 10 years. He is currently attached to CFA Head Quarters Brigade, Shepparton.

Neil taught computers, including at SSCC, and has Cert IV in both Small Business Management and Workplace Training and Assessment. He is a qualified Quality Auditor, having created and audited procedures and policies and maintained systems under ISO2001. As a qualified SCUBA instructor, he had the opportunity of travelling the Pacific - diving and also worked in Vanuatu for some time.
